Station 1: Welcome to OPUS!

A photograph of a music classroom. In the foreground, several students wearing light green t-shirts are seated at a long table covered with papers and a water bottle. They appear to be engaged in a group activity. In the background, two adults, a man and a woman, are standing near whiteboards. The whiteboards contain handwritten text, including "OPUS", "UPDATES:", and "GENCOM". A red overlay in the top right corner of the image contains the text "Station 2 Music" in white. To the right of the students, there is a poster for "OPUS" (napopus.org) titled "Chamber Music Programs" and "Growing Young People's Passion for Music".

In-Between: Hi, How Have You Been?

In-Between:
Great to see you again!

We love to have grandma
here too!

Junior Meet 'n Greet

Chamber Music is about friendship and bring out your dialogue through teamwork and music. It is the best part of musicians.

THE Orion Ensemble Recital

Orion is so great, and they are playing for us.

We've played chamber music together for 23 years. Who said Chamber Music is boring?

A 95 °F summer afternoon, with a chapel filled with the world's best chamber music!

We know what the other is thinking by just looking.

Who is applauding?

Bravo Concert!
